

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

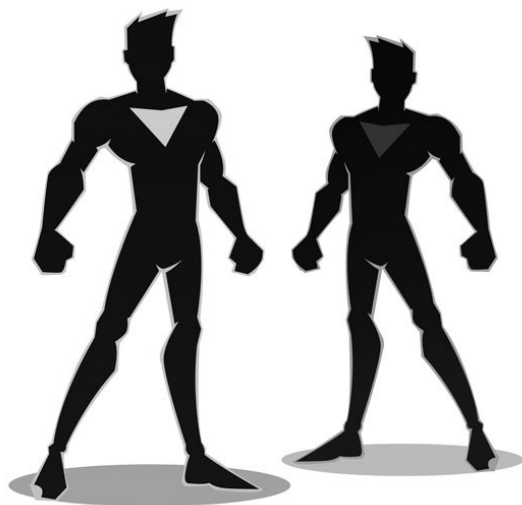

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Batman or Superman? Let's talk about superheroes.

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about hobbies and interests.
- I can express a goal or a purpose.
- I can say what I would want or prefer to do.

Ask your partner:

- Who is your favorite superhero?
Batman or Superman?
- Do you like comic books? Why or why not?

Let's Explore!

Peter and Sally talk about their favorite superheroes. Who is Sally's?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: So Peter, do you want to check out the new Batman movie? I hear it's pretty good!
- Peter: Batman movie, huh? I'd prefer to watch a Superman movie.
- Sally: Superman is cool, but Batman is my favorite superhero!
- Peter: What's so great about Batman? My brother's favorite is Batman, too. He has all the comic books. I don't understand.
- Sally: Well, you have to read the graphic novels! The illustrations are fantastic.
- Peter: Batman has no super powers. Superman has amazing strength and speed. No one can beat him!
- Sally: Well, Batman is more realistic. Superman is all fantasy.
- Peter: Superman doesn't need a sidekick. He works alone.
- Sally: I hate to tell you this, but Batman is more important to popular culture!
- Peter: No way, Sally!

Let's Practice!

Time to practice speaking. What would you prefer to do?

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Correct the mistakes. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. I'd prefer watch a Superman movie.
2. I wud prefer to red books.
3. Do you wnat to check out the new Batman muvie?
4. I wat to go ot the movies.
5. Do you prfer to eat caque or brownies?

Let's Practice!

Batman is more important! Can you complete the sentences?

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use: prefer, to collect, need to watch, tell.

1. I'd _____ to watch a Superman movie.
2. I hate to _____ you this, but Batman is more important to popular culture!
3. I _____ the new TV show - it looks interesting!
4. I like _____ comic books.

Extension Activity

What's your hobby? Interview your partner about their hobby.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Ask your partner: "What is your hobby?"
- Write down their answer.
- Ask them three questions about their hobby.
- Write 5 to 6 sentences about them.
- Share your answers with the class.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I express what I prefer to do.

☐
☐

I ask my partner three questions about their hobby.

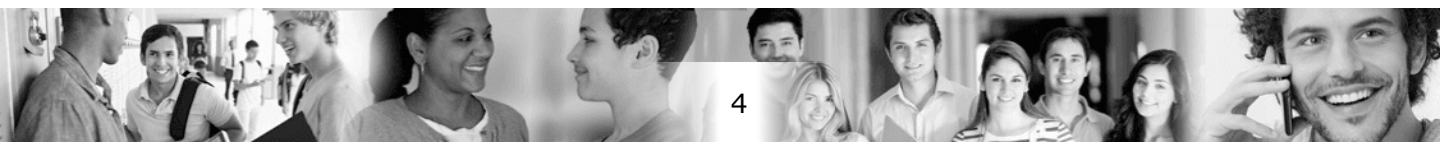

☐
☐

I tell my partner about my hobby.

☐
☐

Target Words

- superhero (noun): an imaginary hero with super powers who helps people e.g. Superman is a superhero.
- super power (noun): having superhuman abilities
e.g. Superman's super power is his ability to fly.
- graphic novel (noun): a novel that looks like a comic-book
e.g. Look at this graphic novel about Batman!
- illustration (noun): a picture; a drawing of something or someone e.g. This graphic novel has some amazing illustrations!
- realistic (adjective): life-like; very much like real life
e.g. Superman is not realistic. No one can fly like that!
- fantasy (noun): things that are not real e.g. Superheroes are a fantasy. They only exist in our mind.
- popular culture (noun): music, books, sports, or art that are popular e.g. In Colombia, soccer is a large part of popular culture.
- sidekick (noun): a superhero's assistant; a partner
e.g. Batman's sidekick is Robin.
- to check out (verb): to look at; try something e.g. Check out this new comic!

Learning Points

Verbs with Infinitives

Some verbs are followed by the infinitive form of another verb (to + verb).

Examples of these verbs are:

prefer

hate

like

need

Examples:

- I prefer to watch a Superman movie.
- I hate to tell you this, but ...
- I like to watch action movies.
- I need to buy a ticket.

Hobbies in North America

A popular hobby in North America is collecting comic books. There are many TV shows and movies about superheroes, too.

There are meetings every year where people discuss new characters, TV shows, and movies.

