Let's Start!

Writing Spot: Sally is blogging about her many hobbies.

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about hobbies and interests.
- I can write a paragraph.
- I can make suggestions.

Ask your partner:

- What are your hobbies?
- How often do you do them?

Let's Explore!

Listen to Sally talk about writing her blog about hobbies. Why is she stuck?
What's Vanessa up to*?

* "Stuck" means being unable to go forward.

 "Up to" means what Vanessa is doing right now.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Hey, Vanessa. It's Sally. What are you up to?
Vanessa: Nothing much. I'm going to play tennis with Peter at three o'clock. Then, I'm going for a jog after dinner. What about you?
Sally: Trying to write my blog ... I'm stuck! Could you help me?
Vanessa: What's this one about?
Sally: I'm not sure. It's hard to think of something different every week.
Vanessa: What about hobbies? Everyone has a hobby.
Sally: That's not a bad idea.
Vanessa: You can write about being an outgoing and creative person.
Sally: You're physically active. What sports teams are there in the area? I could add them in the blog.
Vanessa: There are lots. How about other hobbies too, like music, reading, or even computers?
Sally: Maybe you could write down a list of ideas and e-mail them to me?
Vanessa: Sally, I'm not writing it for you!
Sally: I know. Let's get together tomorrow.
Vanessa: OK. Call you later.

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Talking About Hobbies

If you want to get to know more about someone, you can ask them about their interests and hobbies. You can use the Simple Present tense to ask and answer questions about hobbies.

You can ask questions like these:

What do you like to do in your spare time?

What hobbies do you enjoy?

What do you get up to in your free time?

How many different hobbies do you have?

You can reply like this:

In my spare time I like to ...

When I have some free time I ...

When I get the time, I enjoy ...

I relax by (listening to music).
