Let's Start!

The original Batman! Cool!

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about hobbies and interests.
- I can talk about problems and solutions.
- I can make suggestions.

Ask your partner:

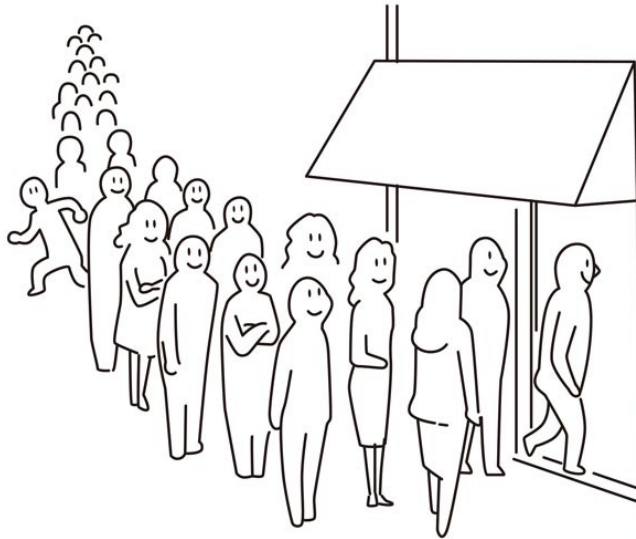

- How popular is it to go to the cinema in your country?
- How long are the line-ups at the cinemas?

Let's Explore!

Sally and Peter look around Comic-Con. What does Peter do?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: I want to go see the Batman stand, but ...
Peter: What's the problem?
Sally: There is a really long lineup.
Peter: Hmm. OK, one moment.
Sally: Where are you going?
Sally: Hello? Peter?
Peter: Hey, Sally!
Sally: Where are you?
Peter: I'm lining up for you at the Batman stand!
Sally: You're so sweet!
Peter: I know ...
Sally: Text me when you are near the front. Good thinking, Peter!
Peter: Thanks! People are waiting for Michael Keaton's autograph!
Sally: Michael Keaton! The original Batman! Cool!
Peter: I want to take a photo with him! Should I get one for you?
Sally: Wait for me, Peter!
Peter: Maybe ... just kidding!
Sally: Not funny! OK, I'm just lining up for some food. See you soon!
Peter: Bye!

Let's Practice!

Text me when you get to the front of the line!

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

1. People are waiting for Michael Keaton's audiograph.
2. The originally Batman! Cool!
3. I want to take a foto with him.
4. I want to go see the Batsmen stand.

Learning Points

Let's Review Making Requests and Suggestions

Remember, there are both polite and casual ways to make and respond to suggestions.

	Polite	Casual
Making a Suggestion	Shall we buy this one? Let's get this book.	You should buy that one! Why don't you get it?
Responding to a Suggestion	Great idea. Thanks for the suggestion.	OK. Good idea. Sounds good.

You can use the modal should and words like Let's or Shall to make suggestions.
