

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Sorry to interrupt ... I am interested in the part-time job.

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can express suggestions and requests.
- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can express an opinion.

Ask your partner:

- How many hours do people work at their jobs in your country?
- How do people like their jobs?

Let's Explore!

Sally is at the comic book store. What is on Tuesdays and Thursdays?

* "Tuesday" is a day of the week. The days are: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hello.
Clerk: Hey, I remember you. How is the new comic? It's one of my favorite ...
Sally: Sorry to interrupt ... I am interested in the part-time job.
Clerk: Right. We only have a couple of shifts a week.
Sally: When?
Clerk: On Tuesdays and Thursdays.
Sally: That's perfect because it doesn't clash with my Spanish or yoga schedules.
Clerk: What shift do you want? Afternoon or evening?
Sally: Evening, please. I like to do homework during the day.
Clerk: I think you should come tomorrow for training.
Sally: OK. I could give you my phone number.
Clerk: Uh, OK. Give me your name too.
Sally: It's Sally Davis, and my phone number is 208-555-6163.
Clerk: Can you write it down for me, please?
Sally: Sure. Could you please give me your business card?
Clerk: Here you are. You should come tomorrow at 5 p.m.
Sally: Thank you!

Let's Practice!

Did you understand the dialogue? Let's find out.

Instructions: Select the correct answer.

1. The clerk introduces his opinion. He says:
 - a. I think you should come for training tomorrow.
 - b. You can come for training tomorrow.
 - c. I would come for training tomorrow.
2. The clerk has another opinion. He says:
 - a. You can arrive early tomorrow, too.
 - b. You should arrive early tomorrow, too.
 - c. You could arrive early tomorrow, too.

Let's Practice!

You should practice writing!

Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake.

1. I would give you my phone number.
2. Can you write it down for me perfect?
3. Sure, could I please give me your business card?
4. You shall come tomorrow at 5 p.m.

Extension Activity

Siesta time? Let's find out! Do some research online about jobs around the world.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go online and find out about a work day in a different country.
- Write a short paragraph (5 - 6 lines).
- Find out: what their work hours are, what days they work.
- Read your paragraph to your partner.
- Share the information with your class.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write about jobs and work.

☐ ☐

I find out about work hours and work days.

☐ ☐

I read it clearly to my partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to interrupt (verb): to say something when another person is talking e.g. I'm sorry to interrupt. Can I ask a question?
- to clash (verb): to disagree
e.g. That schedule clashes with my classes.
- couple (noun): two of something e.g. I can work a couple of days a week.
- perfect (adjective): having no mistakes
e.g. Those days are perfect for me - thank you.
- shift (noun): period of time to work
e.g. We have a morning or an evening shift.
- business card (noun): a card with the name and phone number of a person or company e.g. Could you give me your business card, please?
- training (noun): the process of teaching someone for a job
e.g. You should come tomorrow for training.

Learning Points

Talking About Jobs

Around the world, people have different working hours. In North America, people usually work from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

In some European countries, people work from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Then they have a break, called a siesta until 3 p.m. They work again from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Using Modals to Introduce an Opinion

You use the following phrases including modals, to introduce your opinion or your suggestions to someone else:

I think you should ...

I think you could ...

Examples:

- I think you should come tomorrow for training.
- I think you could get a job here!

